YOUTH HOMELESSNESS COM

Youth Homelessness committee focuses on helping youth so they can move off the streets once and for all, thus ending the cycle of homelessness. Until recently our club supported "Storefront," the only emergency youth shelter in our city for those under the age of 18. Now, with the outreach and connections of Chairman Drew Moser of the Lucky Duck Foundation and Laura O'Sullivan of San Diego Youth Services, we are serving several homeless youth organizations designated for those 25 years and younger including:

- * San Diego Youth Services
- * Youth Assistance Coalition
 - * Urban Street Angels

Our work activities include:

- * Serving Meals
- * Providing bus passes, uber passes, hygiene kits, move-in kits and furnishing
 - * One-on-one mentoring and training
 - * Hiring youth
 - * Rotarians at Work Day

These pictures are from their most recent event serving more than 50 at a shelter downtown. Kudos to Rick Brooks for cooking the Tri Tip!
